Editorial

Parramatta Eagles maintained their five point lead of the NSW Super League despite being held to a nil-all draw by second place Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park.

Neither side was able to take advantage of possession with very few goal scoring chances.

The closest anybody came to securing a win came care of Tigers' midfielder Martin Driene in the 14th minute when his well struck drive went underneath goalkeeper Jason Holmes but struck the post and was desperately cleared away by the Eagles' defence.

The Tigers also had a chance late in the match when Mite Talcedski was put through from a quick free kick but with only Nate Covic to beat he put his shot wide of the right hand post.

While there may have been a shortage of goals at Lambert, that wasn't the case at Seymour Shaw when the Sharks entertained Bonnyrigg White Eagles in a match rescheduled from Round 12.

Javier Mancino opened the scoring on 16 minutes; Paul Dee added a second on 38, before Colin Luff's double strike either side of halftime made sure all three points went Bonnyrigg's way.

It was a similar story at Lynwood Park, the home of the Macarthur Rams.

Allan Bourke's Central Coast outfit made the long trip to the city's south west and came away with all three points.

Goals to Damien Brown, Matthew Heighway and Shane Knight saw the Coasties crush the Rams 3-1 to consolidate a mid-table position.

Blacktown City Demons suffered a major blow in a 2-1 home loss to the Bankstown City Lions.

Still the news from the Sharks was not all bleak as they picked up a point in a one-all draw with Canterbury at Henson park.

In other results at the weekend an own goal earned the St George Saints the points against Sydney United who are now three points adrift of Sutherland and firmly entrenched at the foot of the Super League table.

On The Road to the title

CENTRAL COAST vs BLACKTOWN CITY DEMONS

These two have developed a healthy rivalry over the last year and a half. This stems from the Coasties two wins last season over the Demons. However Blacktown has levelled it at two apiece with a 1-0 win in the pre-season cup and a 4-2 home win in Round 2. This game is shaping as another interesting battle as in recent weeks the Coasties have returned to the form we know they are capable of. Coach Allan Bourke said many weeks ago that once his players started to convert just a few of the chances they were creating they would win matches and that's exactly what happened. Seven goals in their last two games and convincing wins against top five opposition which has put them right back into finals contention. Are now only two points out of the five and confident. Blacktown maintained the run of outs with teams coming off the bye, losing somewhat unexpectedly to Bankstown, the team the Coasties thrashed the week before. It continues their rather indifferent season and they are quite likely to bounce back here. Will get Damon Langan and Steve Hickman back from suspension which will certainly add strength to the defence.

RECORD: They met just the once at Pluim Park, with the home side 1-0.

CONCLUSION: Both sides like to play the ball around so should be an entertaining game. The Coasties are on a bit of a roll and have not played at home in over a month, so will be keen to keep their supporters happy.

ST. GEORGE SAINTS vs LEICHHARDT TIGERS

Long time rivals for nearly thirty years both in the State League and National League. Have fought many classic battles when they were two of the most feared sides in the country. However things have changed somewhat in the last few years with both clubs losing their well known club premises in the last year. Things are also not transpiring on the field for St. George either but did gain a positive result last week in the battle for bottom spot against Sydney United. Up until then their only win was against Leichhardt in Round 2 at Lambert Park. But since then they have struggled and most recently had four losses on the trot before the narrow win over United. Leichhardt on the other hand strung five wins together to move towards top before slipping away with only two draws in their last three games. Held leaders Parramatta very well with the defence outstanding. Key defender Jeremy Pettenon however is out for this game suspended due to cards but coach Tony Pezzano has Blago Milicevic to call on to come into the side.

RECORD: Have met on 21 occasions at St. George, with the St. George winning eight and Leichhardt 10 with three draws. The Saints last win was in 1995 by 2-1, while Leichhardt won comprehensively 4-0 last year.

CONCLUSION: Despite only getting a draw against Parramatta, Leichhardt performed strongly. The Saints also would have been lifted with a win but United is last and Leichhardt second and the gap is obvious. Leichhardt to win this one.

SUTHERLAND SHARKS vs SYDNEY UNITED

For the second week in a row, Sydney United are in a battle for last spot on the table. Last week it was against out of form St. George and were beaten 1-0 and this week it's against the Sharks. Who would have imagined talking about the Sharks in a battle for bottom spot after the pre-season cup win. But since then nothing has gone right for them and they are sadly very out of touch. Picked up a valuable away point at Canterbury, especially as they lost on the Thursday before to Bonnyrigg 4-0. Lack of depth has really found them out this season, with the losses of David Thomas (season) and Tony Brandtman really hurting the team. Lack of punch in front of goals has not helped either and last years Player of the Year Grant Bard and his partner Anthony Versi have to start scoring goals or they could find themselves in deeper trouble. United know they could get a number of their youth league players from the National League for this game and will be much stronger. A lot will depend on how these players come through the NSL Youth League final on Wednesday night.

RECORD: Have met on 13 occasions at Sutherland. The Sharks have won twice while United have won seven games with four draws. Sutherland won the last meeting between the two in 1990 3-0, while United last win came in 1981 by the scoreline.

CONCLUSION: There is a lot at stake here, so I wouldn't expect either side to go out on an allout attack. It will be very tight which will probably suit the home side a little more. If United do get some of their Youth players they will be much stronger but for me a draw seems the likely result.

BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS vs BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES

What a tantalising game this promises to be. Clashes between these two are always fiercely competitive with no inch given. But at the same time both sides know how to play entertaining soccer and that what we should get here. The Lions caused a surprise with a 2-1 win at Blacktown and in the process found a potent striker up front. Nick Bosevski will relish his chance in the State League after scoring regularly in the National Youth League competition. His two goals against the Demons were well taken and was unlucky not to have had at least another one. Bonnyrigg had the bye on the weekend but did not get a completely free two weeks playing their catch up match with Sutherland on the Thursday before. As I have said before the team with bye has not won the week after but this will not really apply to them. They have won six of their past eight matches and in Colin Luff they also have a striker that has nose for goals (six in two games).

Blacktown City's Damon Langan

RECORD: Have met on 7 occasions at Bankstown with the Lions winning five and Bonnyrigg just the one. Last year saw Bankstown win a thriller 5-3 while Bonnyrigg's last win came in 1992 by 3-0.

CONCLUSION: Both are in the top five and I expect a very entertaining game with plenty of goals for the big crowd that should be on hand. It is hard to know which way to go but I fancy Bonnyrigg as the Lions will miss Ray Younis's (suspension) speed when going forward.

PARRAMATTA EAGLES vs MACARTHUR RAMS

The Eagles would have been disappointed with their effort last week against Leichhardt. Although the draw suited them better than it did Leichhardt, the Eagles players pride themselves on winning most games but were down a little last weekend. They are still unbeaten six matches and are still the team to beat. Macarthur after beating Leichhardt the previous week, were outgunned by a rejuvenated Central Coast side at home last weekend. The Rams never recovered from the blistering start by the Coasties and now have a battle on their hands to get up for this match. They also have a match on Thursday against Canterbury which could work in two ways. A good win for the Rams at Lynwood Park, would see them move back into the top five and give them confidence for this game. But a draw or loss would be disastrous as the Rams would be expected on current form to beat the Berries.

RECORD: Have met just the once at Melita, with the Eagles winning 3-1. In fact the Rams are yet to get a result against Parramatta in their three meetings all up.

CONCLUSION: This will be Anthony Surjan's last game before heading overseas on a holiday for 10 weeks so he will want to go on a winning note. The Eagles are the form team and they should have too many big guns for a good but inexperienced Rams side.

DOUR DRAW AT LAMBERT

The Super League's top two sides Parramatta Eagles and Leichhardt Tigers failed to bother the scoreboard attendant in a dour struggle at Lambert Park.

It was your typical top of the table clash with both sides not willing to take too many risks and leaving themselves open to mistakes at the back.

Both sides were relying on quick breaks as the best form of attack but were continually repelled by strong defence at both ends. Chances were few and far between which disappointed the crowd of about 1000 that turned up to watch match.

The draw sees Parramatta maintain it's five point lead at the top the table, with Leichhardt still maintaining second spot after a number of teams below them suffered upset losses.

Parramatta going into the match with four straight wins and 15 goals scored looked confident at the start with last weeks four goal hero Saso Petrovski having the first chance after only two minutes. But with the goal at his mercy he failed to get power and accuracy to his header which went wide.

Up the other end the smallest player on the park John Buonavoglia, went narrowly over the bar with a header from Martin Driene's free kick into the box.

The closest anyone came to scoring was in the 14th minute, with a Driene drive squeezing under Eagles keeper Jason Holmes. However the ball struck the base of the post and was scrambled away by George Souris with a desperate kick. Parramatta looked most effective when going forward with Anthony Surjan getting down and behind the defence several times.

One such raid down the left saw Surjan cut inside and square the ball to Petrovski who was clear in the box, but his first touch let him down and his weak shot enabled Covic to turn away for a corner.

Covic again came to his sides rescue in the 33rd minute with a great low down save from a thunderous Steve Karavatakis drive.

Most expected the game to come to life in the second half, but the defences from both sides were proving very hard to beat.

In what proved a dour second half, Mite Talcevski had the best chance of grabbing a winner ten minutes from the end. He was sent through from a quick free kick but drove his shot wide with only Holmes to beat.

Leichhardt: Covic, Talcevski, Driene, Pettenon, Macolino (Williams), Bourke, Buonavoglia, Juric, Bazdaric, Shipley, Koch (Milicevic).

Parramatta: Holmes, Souris, Reveley, Harding, Ortiz, Utjesenovic, Haniotis, Petrovski, Surjan, Karavatakis (Jee), Mendez.

BOSEVSKI DOUSES DEMONS FIRE

Nick Bosevski marked his first full game of the season for Bankstown City Lions with two goals in his sides 2-1 win over Blacktown City at the Gabbie Stadium.

Coming off a bad loss last week, the win for the Lions continued the trend of no team winning coming off the bye with Bosevski grabbing the winner with 90 minutes on the clock.

Bosevski, on loan from Marconi, looked lively all night and could quite easily have had a hat-trick in what was a very good open game of soccer.

Blacktown as usual started strongly, with Lions keeper Robert Raguz in good form denying Ivo De Jesus, Steve Berry and Stuart Cleary with excellent saves.

But there was nothing he could do about the opening goal of the night in the 15th minute, as Dean Harding and Jay Anderson combined to set up a close range effort for De Jesus.

Anderson was unlucky a few minutes later with a shot on the turn hitting the post.

However from here on it was Bankstown's turn to do some attacking with Fernando Greco saving shots from Tony Velevski, Michael Hawrysiuk, Bosevski and Ray Younis all before the break.

Bankstown's dominance continued after the break with Bosevski causing most concern to the Demons defence.

In the 64th minute he was rewarded when a corner was headed down and he was on the spot to score past Greco.

The action came thick and fast now with Cleary nearly putting the Demons back ahead a minute later was his spectular overhead kick was cleared off the line and then Bosevski found himself free in the area but shot wide of an open goal.

But with the game drawing to an end a draw seemingly the final result a determined Bankstown launched a last ditch attack with Bosevski launching a great volley from the edge of the area into the back of the net for a dramatic winner.

The win would have eased fears in the Bankstown camp who were simply awful against Central Coast the week before and now they have a striker they can rely onto score regularly they should be a real chance of a top five spot.

Blacktown: Greco, Doyle, McKittrick (Vulic), Foxe, De Jesus (Suzor), Berry, Cleary, O'Connell, Anderson, Harding (Geppert), Cutler.

Bankstown: Raguz, Josevski, Boskovski, Gomez, Hawrysiuk (Todoroski), Velevski (Zafirov), Van Bentum, Luksic, Younis, Bosevski, Baillie.

COASTIES ON A ROLL

Central Coast served notice that they are still around and will play a key part in deciding who makes the top five with a 3-1 win over Macarthur Rams at Lynwood Park.

They have now moved to within two points of fifth placed Blacktown City.

It was the Coasties second big win in succession as the players are now starting to find the target more regularly.

Coach Allan Bourke has stated all year that his side would figure in the top five race but only if side would put just a fraction of their chances away which they create.

They were given a dream start against Macarthur, when Craig Thompson was through but in coming for the ball Rams goalkeeper Chris Duffett caught the Coasties midfielder resulting in a penalty kick.

Brown stepped up to convert for his sixth goal of the year.

Five minutes later they were two up when Shane Knight eluded the Rams defence to shoot past Duffett.

However Macarthur were able to hit back almost immediately when Mark Drysdale fouled Ben Green in the box, with Simon Fedele stepping up to score from the spot.

However the Coasties did manage to put the game out of the Rams reach when Knight swooped to head a corner home with 15 minutes to go.

Macarthur: Duffett, Wright, Sweeney, Lord, Reid, Fedele, Lindley, Green, Rayner, Macerola (Clune), Hayward (Pena).

Coasties: Fitzsimmons, Moss, Drysdale, Lowe, Brown, Preston (Steele), Thompson, Heighway (Norman), Knight, Clarke, Roberts.

ALL SQUARE AT HENSON

Canterbury Marrickville and Sutherland Sharks finished all square at Henson Park on Sunday.

In a dramatic opening to the game both sides had scored within the first six minutes and that was the way it stayed till full-time.

Zoran Ilic returning to the side in the last few weeks in a bid to ease their scoring problems did just that with a 3rd goal. He slotted a shot past Paul Henderson after good work by Robbie Jerkovic.

The lead was shortlived as Stuart Porter's cross was headed home by Harry Christodoulou.

Sutherland then suffered more injury setbacks with Anthony Versi and Tony Brandtman both leaving early in the game.

The second half was a free flowing game with both sides having opportunities but in the end a draw was a fair result.

Canterbury: Tolios, M Raeburn, Hantzis, Percy, Mendes, Jerkovic, Christoforidis (Manolopoulos), Nikas, Georgallis, Tsigolis, Ilic (Angelo Markopoulos).

Sutherland: P Henderson, Donnelly, Lerond, Brandtman (Morales), S Henderson, Cabassi, Clinch, Porter, Mozsny, Versi (Pillay (McLeay), Christodoulou.

Leichhardt Tigers John Koch in action.

BONNYRIGG TROUNCE SHARKS

Bonnyrigg White Eagles trounced the Sutherland Sharks 4-0 at Seymour Shaw Park in their catch up match played last Thursday night.

A blistering first half proved the difference as the Eagles took a 3-0 lead at the break.

Javier Mancino opened the scoring in the 16th minute, followed by a second from Paul Dee in the 38th.

Colin Luff then added one before the break and one almost immediately after to secure the resounding victory.

SAINTS MOVE AWAY

St. George Saints moved away from near the bottom with a rather lucky 1-0 win over Sydney United at Edensor Park.

For the second time in three matches, United have been beaten by an own goal and in the process has left them trailing in last place.

SYDNEY Olympic will take some beating in the race for championship honours in Super Youth League as the Illawarra Lions can atest.

Olympic entertained the Lions at Blick Oval on Sunday and came away with maximum points with wins in all age divisions.

In fact, Olympic was so dominant that they only conceded one goal and that was in a 3-1 win in the 13s.

It didn't get any better for the youngsters from the South Coast as they recorded a 2-0 loss in the 14s; a one-nil result in the 15s, while the under 16s from Olympic thumped the Lions 5-0 in the 16s.

Sydney Olympics Sue Christofides reports Bruce Ghamaroui with two goals and more strikes by Anthony D'Puzzo, Anthony Mondello and Nathan Celik were the toast of the Hurlstone Park club.

It wasn't the kind of news officials from the Parramatta Eagles wanted to read as they lost ground on Olympic by the virtue of the Central Coast's 2-0 win in the 14s at Melita Stadium.

Still the Eagles managed to pick-up nine points on the day with wins in the 13s, 15s and put five past the Central Coast in the under 16s.

A 2-all draw in the under 13s stopped Marconi from claiming maximum points in their home games against visiting Warringah Dolphins.

But the Fairfielders made sure of staying in touch with both Sydney Olympic and Parramatta Eagles with solid 2-1 wins in both the 14s and 15s.

The biggest result of the weekend's round of matches was the eight goals Marconi put past the Warringah defence in the under 16s.

Blacktown City showed they are

Revolution

Olympic's Clean Sweep

tough opponents to beat at Francis Park to pick up eight points at the expense of Gladesville Hornsby.

The best performance by the Demons was recorded in the under 15s, with Blacktown winning 3-0.

Southern Districts made the trip up to the Newcastle district and stunned the Amadstown Rosebud with a win in a nine goal thriller in the 13s and a 2-1 result in the 15s to pick-up eight away points.

The Buds could do no better than a brace of points from draws in the 14s and 16s.

Sydney United made the short trip to Lynwood Park and came away with six points at the expense of the Macarthur Rams.

United's best result of the day was a 3-0 win in the 14s, while the 13s, 15s and 16s had to settle on a share of the points.

It was a mixed bag of results at Seymour Shaw where the Sutherland Sharks opened proceedings with wins in the 13s and 14s, but lost the older age divisions to Wollongong City.

In Division One the big winners on the weekend were the St George Saints who recorded big wins in three age groups against the Granville Association at Rydalmere Park.

The Saints made it a clean sweep with a 1-0 result in the under 16s to pick-up 12 points.

Other outstanding results were put in by the Leichhardt Tigers at the expense of Kuringai, while the Penrith Panthers made the trek down from the foothills of the Blue Mountains to record wins in the 14s, 15s and 16s at the expense of Eastern Suburbs at Camdenville Oval.

Blacktown Association picked up three wins on their away trip to the Rockdale City Suns, as did CSI Schofield who were at home to Southern Branch.

In the Second Division Hills United picked up 10 points at the expense of St Johns Park at Fred Caterson Oval.

Other results of note were Ryde City picking up seven points in the away series to Mt Druitt Town Rangers, while both Mt Pritchard and Macquarie edged out Parramatta City and Springwood respectively.

Hawkesbury City and the Stanmore Hawks had to settle on five points a piece.

First Division Weekend Review

PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS

Two weeks ago Hurstville Minotaurs had what appeared to be an unassailable lead in the competition, but two straight losses, neither of them anticipated by most pundits, have left them with a little work still to do before the title can actually be claimed as theirs.

Stan Ackerley's Penrith, unimpressive a week earlier against West Wanderers, came away from Hurstville with a precious 1-0 win, important anyway for the Panthers given their own proximity to the relegation zone up to now.

Poor finishing by the Minotaurs early on let Penrith off the hook and with Darren Read and Danny Hinton forming such an effective spearhead for the visitors the lapses were to prove costly.

Penrith has obviously made a valuable capture in Read and despite losing several players this year, most recently Rowan Healy to Sydney United, the team is gradually getting back to its best form.

On this occasion Peter Bennett began the move which led to the winning goal in the 2nd minute.

He combined with Paul Bentvelsen and Chris Minol to send Hinton down the line and when the cross came over Read drifted into the goalmouth, unnoticed, to head home. Read is spending more time now working through the middle and his part in this newly created striking duo is proving ultra effective.

MOUNTIES BLOCK OUT SUNS

New Mount Pritchard coach Lee Sterrey has had immediate success; last week a slender 1-0 win at Fairfield, and this week a much more impressive 4-0 hiding handed out to an unbalanced Rockdale outfit at Cook Park.

Rockdale were without key defenders Peter Dameski and Toni Dimonovski and brought in new signing Darren McDonald in place of Iain McDonald who is injured and due, shortly to go overseas.

They did well enough to look a threat up in lead up work up front, but faltered in front of goal against a Mounties backline including the well organised Ante Zizic and Vladan Radic.

Meanwhile Mounties were playing well themselves and went to the lead in the 28th from a Mark Barrochi goal.

In the second half with Rockdale struggling to get on the scoresheet a quick raid abruptly ended when Toni Salev upended a Mounties striker in the area and Zizic was able to put away the penalty kick in the 77th.Sean Babic, on his home debut, netted the third in the 84th and Bruni got a fourth at the death.

RYDE CITY DO THE DOUBLE

Auburn's feat of downing Minotaurs a week earlier was put in the shade by Ryde's spanking 3-0 victory at Mona Park on Saturday. After an early flurry from Auburn and many fruitless raids throughout the game one could only conclude that Ryde had the right tactics and team formation to combat the normally prolific strikers from the western suburbs club, who were at full strength.

By contrast Ryde were missing Jim Boudaher, Danny Blanco, Alan Welsh and Tim Stratford, yet the new new striking force of Tim Gledhill and Matthew Borg appeared to be the solution the club has been looking for all along. They were a constant menace throughout and the deeper lying John McKie and continually probing Jeff Kelly were well suited to their own roles just in behind the pair.

Ryde also had to use their third keeper in as many matches, following the sudden, unexpected release of a bemused Andrew Prentice and an injury to stand-in Anthony Philp. Newcomer Sam Krslovic was in goal for this game and at times looked a little rusty, though pulling off one or two smart saves as the game wore on.

Kelly gave Ryde the lead when he steered the ball through a crowded penalty area with a low shot which found the bottom left corner of Haydar Arslan's goal in the 6th minute.

Kelly then picked out Borg in the 15th minute with the tall young attacker hitting an excellent volley past Arslan from wide on the right of the box.

Then Hulusi Orhan sent Huseyin Bayhan away with a well weighted through pass in the 38th and when Krslovic failed to claim him it was left to Steve Duval to clear off the line.

Ryde then increased their lead 6 minutes into the second half when Borg held the ball up nicely, beat the keeper and then cut the ball back from the left byline for Gledhill to arrive at the far post and deliver a full blooded volley into an unguarded net.

Ryde's was an all round team performance, with Andy Stratford and Paul Watkins particularly effective on the day.

WESTS HUMBLED BY BATHURST

Early signs were that Wests might get something from this game, but as has been the case all season they just could not find the target.

Bathurst began to get on top and took a two goal lead into half time, thanks to quick goals in the 20th and 21st minutes, with Scott Mutton again prominent.

Ignoring a groin strain which restricted him to rolling the ball out from the back, instead of kicking, Bathurst keeper Braydon Barcham always got things going, with most goals coming from moves begun at the back.

Adam Collins, David Judge and his brother Tony combined to send Mutton away down the left and the ace goalscorer went on to beat West's keeper Daniel Bishop at close range.

Tony Judge added the second when he got on the end of a Shaun Dixon cross, after some magic from Archie Thompson and Mutton got another in the 54th then Thompson headed the fourth from a ball delivered by Renike from a free kick five minutes later.Mutton added two more and to wrap it up Greg Thomas came off the bench, as he did the previous week to latch onto a cross from Renike and tuck the ball under the diving Bishop for the 7-0 win.

HERCULES PUNISH GREYSTANES

A two goal strike by last season's top scorer Jim Melissourgos and front running team-mate Jason Lal lifted Belmore to a 4-0 victory over struggling Greystanes at Blick Oval in a game which the visitors would not concede until well into the second half.

A mix up in the Stanes defence in the 13th minute saw the alert Melissourgos seize a loose ball and poke it past David Apps who could only watch helplessly as the ball trickled over the line.

Apps was in sparkling touch again, however and kept Belmore at bay for long periods, but when Steve Lombardo was given a second chance to float over a cross in the 70th minute, after the first had not been effectively cleared, Jason Lal was able to rise above the defence and head in goal number two at the far post.

Melissourgos and Lal went on to get two more late goals between them to put the polish on a personal performance which was most pleasing for the home supporters.

HILLS ACCOUNT FOR ILLAWARRA

With Lawrie McKinna leaving himself out after a sub-standard performance the week before, the Hills combo of Luke Allshorn and Bernie Voloder were allowed to carry the attack to Illawarra Lions at Fred Caterson Reserve and the formation paid off as Hills scored two in the first half hour to lead handily at half time.

Voloder made the most of a ball fed to him inside the area to open the scoring with a left footed, close range shot in the 25th minute.

Adam Hagger added a second in the 31st minute and then Andrew Bow made it a three goal lead pouncing on a rebound from Allshorn's powerful shot.

Allshorn made a strong run from half way to hit a powerful shot which Anton Avellino palmed away only for Andrew Bow to be on the spot for the tap in and a three goal lead.

Sasha Dimoski gave Illawarra a slim chance when he finished off a good team build up to make it 1-3 in the 59th, but Hills proved too good on the day as the Lions could not penetrate any further.

STANMORE UNCONVINCING WINNERS

A spectacular individual goal by Con Anagnostopoulos seconds before the break destroyed visiting Fairfield Bulls' hopes of snatching something from their opponents Stanmore at Arlington Oval on Sunday.

Fairfield had been well in the picture and forced some big saves from Paul Kyprianou during a pressure first half for the host club, but the strike by Anagnostopoulos had a touch of class about it and stunned the Bulls.

The tall striker received a long ball down the right flank from debutant Ben Willard and made a very smart turn with his back to goal, 30 yards out, to lift the ball cleverly over keeper Zlatko Josevski, who stood slightly off his line.

Josevski had arrived at the ground only seconds before the start, but made his presence felt with one superb save from the same player who had been part of a lightening fast break involving Eddie Briscoe and Jason Oldridge.

Oldridge was busy all day and as the second half developed was in the thick of the action.

Briscoe was relatively quiet, but managed to score the second when he slid in at the left of the areato meet a measured pass from Anagnostopoulos, in a move begun by Zajmi. Briscoe just got there before the keeper who had dived bravely, but a split second too late to stop the winning shot.

Fairfield pulled one back from the penalty spot by Sasha Talevski after the same player had been brought down by Zajmi in a decision which looked harsh to many observers.

EASTERN SUBURBS LEAVE IT LATE

The ever reliable Gerry Gomez left it until the 88th minute to sink relegation candidates Warringah at Wentworth Park on Sunday, after the visitors had cancelled out a Vadim Mikoutsky strike in the 28th minute with a 58th minute Shamus Hayes goal.

BRIEF WEEKEND PREVIEW

Now to the last of the busy double header weekends for clubs in this division, staged over the Queens' Birthday weekend, on Saturday and Monday.

Best games on Saturday appear to be Rockdale and Stanmore at the home side's Ilinden centre in Banksia where the locals will be out to stake a place in the top four, after a slow start and Minotaurs and Bathurst at Arlington Oval, in a game switched from Hurstville Oval, a 'must see' event for neutral supporters.

Those lucky enough not to have club ties will be torn between these matches and it is Bathurst who have the most to play for, so perhaps they can topple the mighty Minotaurs.

Auburn and Belmore at Mona is another to savour, the home side fancied now that the ship has been steadied, while there should be plenty of fine football played in the Greystanes- Eastern Suburbs match at Hajduk Stadium.

Penrith plays Ryde in a crucial game for both sides at Cook Park, Ryde is a slight favourite and Warringah meets Hills United at Cromer where the locals are in dire need of the points and could just get them.

Fairfield have another derby with Wests and are looking for a double, but could find things hard and in Wollongong Illawarra needs to beat Mount Pritchard which they could well do, on recent showings.

On Sunday night Fairfield announced the signing of Rale Rasic as their coach for the rest of the season and it will be interesting to see if he can turn things around.

Monday's games are highlighted by Ryde's hosting of Bathurst at T G Millner in a big occasion for both and the Hills and Easts' tussle at Fred Caterson could also provide a good spectacle.

Expect Wests to make life hard for Rockdale at Hajduk Stadium, Minotaurs to shrug aside Fairfield at Hurstville, though Rale Rasic may have other thoughts, and Belmore to beat Penrith at Blick Oval.

Stanmore and Illawarra could finish all square at Arlington Oval, as might Auburn and Greystanes at Mona Park , the ground on which the Stanes will play 4 games later, next month.

Mount Pritchard tackles Warringah at Cook Park, Cabramatta West with the Dolphins not ready to call it a day quite yet, despite the enormous ground they have to make up on some of the others.

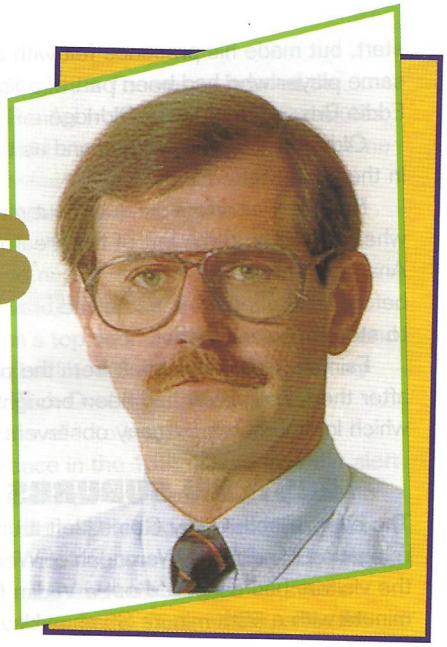
PETER KOGOY LOOKS AT THE WORLD GAME



UNITED'S CULINA COSMOS TOP PICK

WOODEN spooners Canberra Cosmos are chasing beaten national soccer league grand final coach Branko Culina for next season.

The Cosmos have targeted Culina after former Everton and Sheffield Wednesday star Mike Lyons parted company after two seasons with the Canberra club.

Club chairman Paul Murphy rejected reports that Culina had agreed to re-sign for United on a new two-year contract.

"Branko is in Malaysia with the Young Socceroos for this month's World Youth Cup without signing for anyone," Murphy said.

"That worries us a little, because we need to get this matter sorted out and we will be talking to other coaches in the meantime."

Whoever takes on the Cosmos job will find the going tough unless they dig deep into the transfer market.

Young Socceroos 'keeper Danny Milosevic has signed with German first division club Arminia Bielefeld, while midfielders Michael Garcia and Vince Grella have linked up with Perth Glory and Carlton respectively.

But the Cosmos received a spot of good news with the signing of a team club sponsor on Thursday.

"Obviously, we would have liked to tie the announcement of a new coach into that," Murphy said.

"It follows we will be in contact with Branko while he is overseas."

Meanwhile, Sydney United president Ivan Simic remains confident Culina would stay at Edensor Park next summer.

But Culina wasn't so sure.

"I'm weighing-up my options," Culina told Super Soccer from the Young Socceroos camp in Kuala Lumpur.

"The Canberra offer is tempting, but the United terms are equally as good."

If the United coach does stay put, it will be the second major setback for Cosmos in a six-week quest to find a replacement for Lyons.

The Cosmos' first target, team boss of the now-defunct Collingwood Warriors Zoran Matic, turned down an offer and later accepted the post at Marconi following the Stallions decision not to re-new Manfred Schaefer's contract.

Other names which have been linked with the Canberra job have been David Mitchell, caretaker coach with UTS Olympic during the just-completed season, and Schaefer.

The local favourite for the job is former NSL player Ray Junna, now in charge of Olympic in the local ACT league.

Meanwhile, Sydney United midfielder and national soccer league Player of the Year Kresimir Marusic and club president Ivan Simic have challenged ethnic clubs to take a new look at their position.

Marusic, who plans to remain in Australia for at least another three years, said officials and supporters from ethnic clubs should consider taking a different approach in the future.

"There are many nationalities in Australia but all these people from different countries must understand this is Australian soccer," he said.

"They must come to the games and be Australians."

Marusic takes Warren Medal

The Croatian stylist has had approaches from Perth Glory, Carlton, Melbourne Knights, Sydney United and Marconi for next season but has not yet decided on a club.

Marusic, who said he has enjoyed his stint here, believes there is plenty of future for the sport in Australia.

"The Players Medal is the first major award I've ever received. The standard of living and the style of football are both good," he said.

"But there are two recommendations I would make for Soccer Australia and they are to introduce more professionalism and try to start an Asia Cup.

"The Cup would bring in teams from Japan, China and Korea where there are already big sponsors and possibly entice more interest from commercial television."

Simic said his club board had met at the weekend to consider its future and would announce plans in a few weeks involving sponsors and changes to the club structure.

United will lose Socceroos Zelkjo Kalac and Robert Enes to English clubs and will be in the market to buy some new players but Simic denied reports the club would fold.

"We're starting with a blank piece of paper and will put building plans on it to attract the wider community," he said.

"There's no way Sydney United will go out of existence. We'll be here for the next 20 years because there is too much talent invested in the club to give up.

"The problem with the so-called ethnic clubs is the perception that the clubs cater for their own little group.

"But the situation today in soccer is not like it used to be and it's time we took the blinkers off.

"We now have to be bigger, smarter, wiser and more attractive to succeed."

Adelaide City striker Kostas Salapasidis shocked Malaysian soccer fans with a four goal burst in the Young Socceroos' 8-1 win over the national Under 20 side in Kuala Lumpur.

The match was the third warm-up fixture for the Australians as they prepare for the finals of the World Under 20 championship in Malaysia in two weeks.

Malaysia, which has spent two years together to prepare for the tournament, started with a rush on the Australian goal but were rocked when Salapasidis broke away to open the scoring in the third minute.

"We created good opportunities but didn't expect such a big score considering it was an international," Australian captain Danny Milosevic said.

"It was tough when they levelled the score at 1-1 and put us under pressure but the game opened up when we scored another two to lead 3-1 at half time.

"We gradually got on top through confidence and the players were surging through to try and score in the second half.

"We'd heard a lot about the Malaysians, who are also in the world finals and thought they would be very well organised, especially in their own country."

Goalkeeper Milosevic conceded the first goal of the tour when the Malaysians broke away on the right and the cross left him unprotected against the opposition striker.

Overseas players Lucas Neill and Hayden Foxe also scored as did UTS Olympic midfielder Brett Emerton and South Melbourne midfielder Bill Damianos.

Coach Les Scheinflug was pleased with the effort and said the players now seemed to have settled down to the heat and humidity.

He said he was happy with the team fitness in the match, particularly as they finished strongly in the second half when he expected them to slow down.

"Everyone came through the game without injury."

The Young Socceroos open their World Youth Cup campaign proper against Canada on June 18, they then meet Hungary on June 20 before ending the preliminary round of matches against Argentina on June 26.

Italy Stuns Aussies

AUSTRALIA suffered a telling blow going down 3-0 against Italy at the US Women's Cup competition at Grant Field, New Hampshire last weekend.

Despite the final scoreline the Aussies went close to scoring on a number of occasions, with captain Sunni Hughes' fourth minute shot on goal cleared off the line.

Anissa Tann-Darby's shot from an ensuing corner kick after 19 minutes again denied the Australians from opening their account.

Italy's Carolina Morace then came into her own, living up to her superstar status with a major hand in all three goals.

Morace's close range shot produced the opener for Italy in the 33rd minute.

Morace, a minute before halftime, then looked set to shoot with the ball at her feet in front of goal, but instead sent a ball across to the unmarked Antonella Carta who chested the ball and smashed home a volley for a truly spectacular goal.

There was more of Morace's brilliance after halftime that produced Italy's third, for Carta to add to her goal tally.

National coach Greg Brown singled out midfielders Lisa Casagrande and Sharon Black as Australia's best.

The team was: Belinda Kitching, Anissa Tann-Darby, Kristyn Swaffer, Traci Bartlett (Tammi Thornton 79), Sonia Gegenhuber, Sharon Black, Lisa Casagrande, Kim Revell (Bryony Duus 89), Shelly Youman, Sunni Hughes, Katrina Boyd (Lisa Dunne 79).

In the under 21 international played at the AMCOR Olympic training centre in San Diego, the Aussies went down 1-0 from a shot from 19-year-old Laurie Schwoy.

Brown gave 15-year-old Alicia Ferguson the chance to play up front alongside Casagrande, with Amy Wilson and Bryony Duus operating in central midfield.

An injury to goalkeeper Joanne Butland saw Belinda Kitching called on to make a spectacular save just before halftime.

The best chance of an equaliser fell to Casagrande in the second half, but her shot on goal was well saved.

Surjan flies Eagles Nest

Anthony Surjan's stay at Parramatta is a short one. Surjan is taking a well earned break from the game after nearly 14 months of continual playing. Surjan is heading overseas for 10 weeks with some friends to do some sightseeing around Europe, which will include a Contiki tour of the Greek Isles (by the way Surge if you get an overweight young bus driver who wears classes and goes by the name of Mark or Coops, give him a hard time).

Surjan was Parramatta's Player of the Year and his great year earned him a second trip down south to Wollongong for a crack at the National League. Surjan performed admirably, starting in every game for the Wolves.

He will be back for the Wolves pre-season training and just maybe the Eagles finals campaign.

* Word around the clubs is that a number of National League coaches have been spotted at a few games recently. Of most interest has been Gary Marocchi from Perth Glory. If you do not already know he has a former State League player in Peter Vukmirovic (Bonnyrigg and Leichhardt) on his books and he made a number of appearances throughout the season. He is obviously looking at a number of players that will hopefully strengthen the squad for next season.

Perth astounded most critics by just missing out on the top six in their first season and with the Glory's wonderful crowds and not to mention beautiful city and weather, the attraction would be too good to refuse for many players.

* Just a quick note on State League players. A number of people have said to me that any state league players would be hard pressed to make it to the National League. But it amazes me that coaches do not look more closely at the state league. Each club has some tremendous young talent which are well worth a look at. Players such as David Huxley, David Harding and Sasha Utjesenovic are firmly entrenched in the leading Parramatta side, while David Reid from Macarthur and John Buonavoglia has impressed many this year. Wollongong City with almost a side contained of state league players performed very well this year and were challenging for a top six spot for much of the season, while Newcastle also with a team virtually from the Newcastle area were another that performed above expectations.
